Final Take-Home Exam – Spring 2015
Monday, May 4, 2015 – 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
6 Hours (360 Minutes)

Honor Code Reminder: Under the Honor Code, the submission of any academic work constitutes a representation on the student's part that such work has been done and submission is being made in compliance with all applicable provisions of the Code.
Entering your 4-digit exam number in ExamSoft serves as your signature to the Honor Code.

EXAM INSTRUCTIONS

1. The examination consists of five (5) pages, including this one. You will find three questions. Please make sure that your copy is complete and that you answer all three questions.
2. This is a take-home examination. It is being administered through ExamSoft. The Registrar, Maria Walton, will email you the exam and password to your Colorado.EDU email address at approximately 7:50 a.m. Mountain Standard Time on the day of your exam.
3. Your answer must be uploaded no later than 5:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time, according to Law School rules. While ExamSoft will NOT necessarily time you out, your exam is due no later than 5:00 p.m. Examination answers will not be accepted late.
4. If you have problems or questions regarding your exam or ExamSoft, please contact the Registrar:

Maria Walton, Wolf Law Building Room 326H
303-492-1865, Maria.Walton@Colorado.EDU
5. You have six hours to complete the exam, and the exam is worth 300 total points. You should devote approximately two hours to each question. Each question is worth 100 points or one-third of the total score.
6. As soon as you turn to the first page of the exam, you must (1) begin timing yourself and (2) open up ExamSoft as if you were beginning to write your answer. You must do this even if you are not ready to begin writing. You must cease all work on the exam at or before six hours have elapsed. Do not expect ExamSoft to warn you or shut down after six hours. You are bound by the honor code to spend no more than six consecutive and unbroken hours on this exam, regardless of any interruptions. You may work on the exam within any six-hour block of time during the 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. time period.
7. Each problem has a separate word limit, indicated at the beginning of the problem and as follows: Problem One: 2000 words; Problem Two: 2500 words; and Problem Three: 1000 words.

8. Answers will be graded based on their content, clarity of expression, and organization. I suggest that you spend time outlining your response before you start to write. Where information is not provided that would be relevant to the analysis, feel free to explain how different facts would lead to different outcomes.
9. Assume that all cases that were pending when we discussed them in class are still undecided. If any cases have been decided during the course of the semester, you are not responsible for knowing the final rule, result or reasoning, and you will gain nothing by talking about the new decision.
10. Since this is a class about entertainment and creativity, some of the fact patterns may be based on real creative content, technology, and products. You will be neither rewarded nor penalized for knowing or using facts about the actual content, technology, and products that are not presented in the exam questions. Feel free to add these types of details if you think they improve the readability of your answer.
11. In answering these questions, you may consult any printed materials you wish. You may also consult any of the following computerized materials: (1) anything stored on your computer's local storage; (2) anything hosted at paulohm.com; (3) a copy of Title 17 of the U.S. Code hosted at <https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/17> (or a comparable site); and (4) anything stored prior to the exam on a cloud storage site such as Google Drive or Dropbox. You may not consult any Internet hosted materials other than those on this list.
12. Mark your answers with your exam number, not your name.
13. Please take care not to reveal details about the exam to classmates who have not yet taken it. Some students have rescheduled the exam.
14. Enter this password in the EXAM PASSWORD window: XXXX ←
15. Good luck!

AS SOON AS YOU TURN THE PAGE, BEGIN TIMING YOURSELF AND OPEN EXAMSOFT. ONCE YOU DO SO, YOU HAVE SIX HOURS TO COMPLETE THE EXAM
